B. About your dog portrait on a Christmas ornament.

As commission agreements are received, they are placed on my commission calendar. There may be a waiting period before I can start your painting based on the number of commissions at that time. The timeline will be communicated once the commission agreement is received, and I will notify you once your commission is started. An average painting takes one week to complete, this does not include dry time or shipping. Dry time takes at least 7 days or longer depending on the paint layers and thickness.

Please read this commission agreement, sign, and date, and return the agreement with a minimum of two photographs in color of your pet in good lighting. Remember, the better the photograph the better the portrait. Photographs and the commission agreement should be emailed to susan@susannuttall.com. A 50% deposit is due via Venmo or Zelle when the commission agreement is received to start the portrait.

1. By signing this agreement, we agreed to the following, the buyer understands that the portrait being a commission will be Susan's interpretation of your pet. The portrait will be created as a stylized painting, it is not meant to be true realism. The artwork will be fun and lively, that is why you are commissioning a painting and not taking a photograph.
2. Susan will email a digital photo of the completed portrait for you to review. If the buyer is not satisfied with the outcome very minor changes can be made. However, the buyer understands that only changes within reason and ones that Susan feels she can successfully accommodate will be made. Due to the nature of the computer monitor colors may look slightly different in person.
3. If the buyer is not satisfied with the attempts to modify the portrait there is no obligation to purchase the portrait. However, if the buyer chooses not to purchase the portrait, then Susan has full ownership of the portrait and has the right to sell it.
4. After the buyer approval, the final 50% payment plus shipping is due. Painting will be shipped upon payment. Susan accepts payment through Venmo or Zelle to 704-517-8880.
5. The buyer understands that Susan reserves all copyright and reproduction rights of the portrait.
